Members are assigned to the Districts by their counties of residence but may participate fully in the meetings of any District. Out of state members may specify which District they prefer.

Membership Benefits:

At the State level:

- Annual State Convention & Writing Conference for members and guests
- Annual Writing Contest with discount on entry fees for members
- Annual Yearbook with anthology and membership directory
- Website for current events and member news
- Writers in the Communities project and Youth Contest to encourage young writers

At the District level:

- Workshops conducted by successful authors
- District Contests for members
- Local and/or area meetings and workshops
- News of writing contests outside KAC
- Marketing suggestions for members' manuscripts
- Constructive critique from fellow writers

At the local level:

- Some communities have local groups which meet monthly for sharing, critiques, poetry readings, etc.
